TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is possitively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES McCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency, the Governor of North Carolina.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, October 22d, 1873.

WHEREAS, The people of North Carolina have been abundantly blessed during the past year, and the earth hath yielded bounteously of all the products of its soil so that the garners of the husbandman are filled to overflowing; and the industrious mechanic has realized a rich reward for his labor, and every class of our population prospered in all laudable enterprises; and WHEREAS, above all, fraternal feelings and good will have in a great measure been restored in our midst, and no pleasure, pestilence or famine has visited our State: Now, therefore, as it becomes us, a grateful people, to render thanks to Almighty God for these and numberless other blessings showered upon us in His great mercy, I, Tod R. Caldwell, Governor of North Carolina, in obedience to law and in conformity with an honored precedent, do appoint and set apart

Thursday, November 27th, 1873,

as a day of public Thanksgiving throughout the State; and I do earnestly invite the clergy of every denomination to open their respective houses of worship on said day, and to exhort their congregations to humble themselves before the throne of the ever living God, and render unto Him praises which are justly due, invoking for themselves, their State and their whole country, His guidance and protection throughout all time to come.

"O come, let us sing unto the Lord, let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation."

"Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms."

The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Tuesday, November 11th, 1873.

A PROCLAMATION,

By the President of the United States of America.

The approaching close of another year brings with it the occasion for renewed thanksgiving and acknowledgment to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe for the unnumbered mercies which He has bestowed upon us.

Abundant harvests have been among the rewards of industry. With local exceptions health has been among the many blessings enjoyed. Tranquility at home and peace with other nations have prevailed. Frugal industry is regaining its merited recognition and its merited rewards.

Gradually, but, under the providence of God, surely, as we trust, the nation is recovering from the lingering results of a dreadful civil strife.

For these and all the other mercies vouchsafed, it becomes us as a people to return heartfelt and grateful acknowledgments, and with our thanksgiving for blessings we may unite prayers for the cessation of local and temporary sufferings.

I, therefore, recommend that on Thursday, the twenty-seventh day of November next, the people meet in their respective places of worship, to make their acknowledgments to Almighty God for His bounties and His protection, and to offer to Him prayers for their continuance.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this 14th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and [L.S.] of the independence of the United States the ninety-seventh.

U. S. GRANT.

By the President:
HAMILTON FISH,
Secretary of State.

A Specimen Brick.

If any one desires to become thoroughly convinced of the wishes of the Democracy in this State, he should sometimes go behind the newspapers of that party. Their voting strength lies in the country, and by a visit to some old sturdy Democrat, who takes one or two papers of his faith, and who consequently thinks he knows what he is talking about, something may be learned of their real sentiment. At this particular time he would be found in a humor to dictate to the Legislature, which soon assembles, and, with all his conceit and ignorance, it is likely that his advice directed to that illustrious body would have some good in it. His first plaint would probably arise from the fact that some of his hired hands did not do precisely as the old gentleman wished, and he would begin: "I say, it is hard that a white man should have to put up with a nigger as I do. I have a good mind to give that devil a thrashing, but if I did he would leave me, and I can't get any better. They are all alike, lazy and impudent, and if you say a word off they go, knowing that they can get a place somewhere else; something ought to be done to make the niggers stick to their bargains. It ought to be made a misdemeanor for a person to violate his contract, and he ought to be sent to jail and hired out to make him pay the costs. And any white man who will hire a hand, who has quit his former employer without sufficient cause, ought to be sent to jail with the nigger; anyhow, ought to be made to smart for it. Why can't the Legislature do something about it, I'd like to know? I pay my hands, keep a store for that very purpose, but the mean cusses are always in debt, and when I want them to pay me what they owe, I find them going off. They never have anything.—Seems like they are always behind hand; every Saturday coming to the store, and buying more than they can pay for. Then election day, away they go and vote just as they please; haven't paid their taxes, but their votes are as good as mine. The Legislature ought to make them show their tax receipt, like they do in Georgia, and I guess that would make them come up. We make them keep up the roads, though, got them there, din't you see? They want schools, too, want us to be taxed to keep up their schools, like a nigger can learn anything, and the Legislature has been fools enough to pass a school law. They must repeal it and never pass another, then I'd like to see them have any more shools. I tell you, it raises my dander to see the lazy little devils going past my house every day to school; and what do they learn? Their teacher don't know anything much; all he does know he taught himself, and I'd like to see any white person set up to teach niggers about here."

Thus this sterling democrat visits his wrath against the negroes, without considering that for his habits of negligence, they have to thank the system of slavery, and forgetting the temptation of his store, where he sells them cheap goods at a dear rate. He may conclude by saying that the Legislature ought to do more and talk less; and perhaps he has been to Raleigh where his member treated him pretty liberally, and he may add, that they ought to drink less.

It is becoming a fixed purpose with many who see further than the ordinary rank and file of the democracy, to make it a misdemeanor to violate a contract, especially farm contracts. The result will be to reduce laborers to the condition of serfs; to re-establish one of the most hideous features of the feudal ages. This remedy is incalculably worse than the defect which it is asserted that it will cure; and the party attempting it will seal its ruin. The defects of the colored people cannot be eradicated by bad laws. They must be elevated and educated. The solvent for the embarrassments which beset the landower in his dealings with labor, lies not in stringent laws calculated to make the tiller of the soil, a mere appendage to it. The earnest believer in the rights of humanity disdains such laws, he is opposed to making men "like dumb driven cattle," and hopes for a more elevated general sentiment concerning the future of the laborer.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— Intelligence has been received at the office of the Anchor Line (New York) that the steamer Ismalia was passed off the coast of Nova Scotia, on the 22d of October, disabled and under sail. She was out of coal and provisions, which were supplied by a passing vessel.

— The stringency of the money market was never more fully shown than in Alabama recently. At Opelika money was so scarce that some consummate scoundrel, a few nights since, exhumed the corner stone of the new colored church, and extracted therefrom a $1 bill.

— A movement is now maturing for a union of the Farmers, Grangers and Labor Reformers. Leading men of those organizations have been consulting and maturing plans for a general co-operation and consolidation, which are now nearly completed throughout the Western States. Meetings have been held in Detroit in furtherance of this object. The arrangements are being carried on very quietly.

— Gov. Beveridge, of Illinois, compresses into this brief space his Thanksgiving proclamation: "In obedience to custom, and in conformity with the action of the President, I, John L. Beveridge, Governor of the State of Illinois, do appoint Thursday, the 27th day of November next, a day of thanksgiving to Almighty God for the mercies and blessings of another year. Let all the people give thanks in the sanctuary, rejoice at home, and be glad in their hearts."

— A thoughtful and beneficial expedient has been adopted by a Connecticut manufacturer, to compensate his working people for the loss of time and wages, and it is thus described by the Norwich Advertiser. "Mr. E. Winslow Williams, instead or running his mills at Yantic half time, has adopted a system of giving his operatives three days vacation in each week, one-half alternating with the other, the mill running full time, and for their advantage has established in an engine house on the corporation a free school, employing a spinner by the name of Carpenter, fully competent to take charge of it; and we are assured that not only the children, but adults, are improving the opportunities thus afforded. The thoughtfulness and good example of Mr. Williams are worthy of repetition by other manufacturers."

— The Courier-Journal says: We takr it for granted that Mr. Blaine will be re-elected Speaker of the House of Representatives, and that without any serious opposition inside of his own party. He is an admirable presiding officer, and a genial and able man, who does his partisan work like a gentleman. He is as acceptable to the country at large as any of his Republican colleagues. But for whom will the Democratic vote be cast? It is merely an honor, but not an empty honor. Why not bestow it on Beck? He has no superior as a parliamentarian. He is quick and ready, and if it were possible to elect him, he would make a capital Speaker. No man has done more work or better work the last six years. He stands in the front rank. He is the best known and best regarded man in Congress with the great body of people at the South. The Democrats could not do better than give him the only testimony they are able to give him as some scanty recognition of valuable services.

The following story is told by the New York Times correspondent at Lynchburg Virginia: "Some time since, an important cause demanded the presence of Judge Bond, of the Circuit Court, and many strangers were in the city. One day quite a crowd collected near the Norvoll House, around a wretched looking man, who was telling his piteous tale to all who would listen. He had been paid by some rich man in North Carolina to act as a Kuklux, had aided in several murders and other crimes, been arrested with others, tried condemned and sent to Albany; had been pardoned by the President, was trying to make his way back to North Carolina, and was penniless and starving. The Klan has never shown its hideous head here, and Lynchburgers, with one consent, refuse to believe it really ever appeared anywhere. No one believed the poor wretch, and many derided and jeered him, when he caught sight of Judge Bond, who was going to his dinner at the hotel. The convict rushed forward, seized Judge Bond's hand, and begged him to aid his helpless condition, assuring him that he must know him, that he was the Judge who had condemned him! Judge Bond remembered the name as that of one of the criminals, and took him into the hotel, ordered a comfortable dinner for him, and headed a subscription to pay his expenses home. The incident occasioned much discussion at the hotel, and various opinions were expressed in regard to it. Our worthy landlady, who was a trifle prejudiced then—though I think she and everybody else show a more liberal spirit now—was convinced that the man was an imposter. At any rate, she was not sure which was the worst character, Judge Bond or the releasedconvict.

— The jury in the Udderzook case has rendered a verdict of murder in the first degree.

Won't the thousand-and-one rural scribblers and ambitious locals who are pouring out yards and yards of sickly imitations of the Danbury News Man, gives us a rest?

A man on being asked for an appropriate inscription for a foundling asylum, proposed: "Thus far; but no farther."

WILKES MORRIS, Sec'y.
nov 3 141-tf

To the friends of the Cape Fear Agricultural Society:

Your officers have labored dilligently to make the next Fair a success, such as is worthy the great city of Wilmington and the county which sustains it. They have perfected all the arrangements and now alone need the hearty co-operation of those desiring a success. They now appeal to the citizens of the city to come forward and do their duty. We admit that the financial crisis has dampened the ardor of those from whom the Association expected aid. But we ask the question: Has it really injured any? There have been no failures; we are all worse frightened than hurt. Then come forward like men and do your duty. Officers can't do everything without the aid of those really interested. Those men who have the reputation of their city at heart; those men who will really derive pecuniary advantage from the annual collection of a vast concourse of people, each man leaving in the city from $10 to $100. Let those who reap the profit come forward like iiberal men and contribute to its success. Deal fairly, and if benefitted do not underrate the advantage of the Fair to the city, in order that you may conceal from the world how much you may really profit by it. Let the croakers and the despondent, the over-ambitious and wilfully obstinate close their mouths for the time. Say a good word, and not be ever ready to complain of the management. Activity in managers is a very good thing, yet it requires a little liberality on the part of the wealthy, influential, the business men—running through all the various departments of city and commercial life. The commission merchant, the wholesale and retail merchant, the railroad man, the hotel and saloon keeper, the butcher, the baker, the artist, the banker, in fact, all and every one interested in the welfare of the city should come forward like men and contribute but a pittance to the support of the enterprise. And especially do we call upon the newspapers of the city and district to lend their aid to the enterprise. They have ever been liberal and public-spirited, and when they know and understand the difficulties of the management they will not be ready to blame. The State Fair was a success, but it was at an expenditure of $40,000.

The management only asks that those most interested shall contribute to make up such purses as may be within their means. It would ask of the Commission merchants to make up one, of the retail merchants one, of the rail road men one, of the turpentine buyers and distillers one, of the mill men and timber buyers one, of the cotton factors one, of the butchers one, of the hotel keepers one, saloon keepers one, and thus encourage the best horses to be brought to the fair. These need not be large in any instance, yet the producer will in a measure judge of the liberality of each by its encouragement of that holiday sport to which the city has invited the country.

Our premium list will be liberally provided for. The country has given evidence that the approaching fair will be the largest and most successful that we have yet held. As Christmas approaches the holiday will be kept in that spirit in which neighbor should meet neighbor on an high and festive occasion. With a spirit of generous rivalry the farmer will meet the farmer and vie with him in exhibiting specimens of those things which go to make up the wealth of the land. Here, too, fair hands will exhibit the work which will refine the rough nature of the beholder, while it will adorn the Floral department of the annual exhibtion. Here will the sturdy farmer exhibit his stock and while it is beheld and admired will his heart glow with pride as encomium after encomium is bestowed upon his care, his thrift and his possession. All will be one grand, one gay, one festive scene, made up from the energy and wealth of the sons of toil and beautified by the hand of art. Fostered and encouraged by the hand of commerce and adorned and made lovely by the bright eyes, smiling faces and fair presence of lovely woman.

Let no croaker endeavor to throw a damper upon the coming Fair. But, as friends, let all come forward and act their parts well and the Fair must be a success.

WHY DON'T the city authorities have the broken brick taken from the sidewalk on the corner of Fifth and Market streets? There is danger of wrenching one's ankle as they now stand, and are exceedingly disagreeable to ladies who are compelled to pass that way.

THE LARGEST AND CHAPEST STOCK ever brought to this market is to be found at H. HANSTEIN & Co's PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Joseph Johnson, a painter employed by Mr. John A. Parker, fell from the scaffolding in the first story of the Murchison building, on Front street, to the sidewalk, a distance of perhaps fifteen feet, this afternoon. Dr. Norcom was promptly on the spot, and found his injuries of a very severe character. Mr. Johnson's face was cut, and his left leg much hurt. Assistance was promptly given, and the sufferer carried home.

THE PLACE to save twenty-five per cent. is to buy your Clothing, Shoes, Dry Goods, &c., at Mayor's Court.

His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor presiding.

W. West and Scip Hill, charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $20 and costs each.

George Brickhouse and H. H. James, charged with disorderly conduct, and insulting a police officer. James was required to pay $10 and costs. Judgment suspended on payment of costs in regard to Brickhouse.

John Fitzgerald, a seaman, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $10 and costs.

The case against the policeman for dereliction of duty occupied the attention of the Court most of the morning. Serious charges were preferred against some of them but as the evidence has not all been taken, we refrain from particularizing at present.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:—Your attention is called to the great bargains of Fall and Winter Goods at

AN EXCITING CHASE BETWEEN A TOWNSHIP OFFICIAL AND A POLICE OFFICER BOTH MOUNTED.—Wm. McIntire, constable of Lincoln Township rode into the city a day or two ago and put his horse up at the Livery Stables on Princess between Third and Fourth streets. He there saw an animal which he essayed to get the owner, Benj. Scott, to swap for his horse, and had some little understanding about it yesterday morning, but in the afternoon Scott tried the horse and found that his wind was injured; the owners of the horses met last night when Scott told McIntire that he would not swap, as his (McIntire's) horse was unsound. McIntire replied "all right, no harm done," but it was not all right. McIntire had made up his mind to have the horse and the man slipped into the stable, saddled it and was coming out when he was observed by a boy, who had been instructed by Scott not to let McIntire have the horse as they had not swapped, and told him that he must not take the horse. McIntire pushed the boy aside, mounted the horse and dashed off.—Scott saw the man turning the corner of Fourth and Princess streets, and told him to stop, but instead of acquiesing in the command, he put spurs to the horse and quickened the speed. Police Officer Cutlar was notified of the facts, placed on another horse and sent in hot pursuit after the man and horse; the officer followed him to the end of the city limits, and then turned back as he had no instructions to pursue him further or power to make arrests outside of the corporate limits. This seems to be exceedingly strange that an officer of the law should be guilty of the act and perhaps his version of the story will put an entirely new phase on the subject.

An active bachelor in Maine claims to be one hundred and two years old; but he "makes his own bed," according to a local paper, "so he must lse."

— The effort of Trades' Union, to compel full time and wages, is seriously detrimental to their employers interests at this time. BURGLARY.—The thieves now infesting the city entered Col. Wm. L. Smith's residence last night, on the corner of Second and Chestnut streets. The house stands square upon the corner, without any fence about it, and the villains climbed into a window and succeeded in getting a few parlor ornaments, of no value except to the owners. There were three men seen standing upon that corner for nearly an hour last night, and they are undoubtedly the perpetrators.

Large and Enthusiastic Meeting of the Cape Fear Civil Rights Club.

The second regular meeting of the Cape Fear Civil Rights Club took place last night at the City Court Room, the Hall was thronged at an early hour and at 8 o'clock the meeting was called to order.

In the absence of the President, Hon. Geo. L. Mabson, the Vice President, J. M. Wise took the chair. Union Club, No. 1, First Ward, was present and participated in the proceedings. Alderman Brewington being called for responded in a brief and pertinent speech, and was followed by James Heaton, Esq., who addressed the Club in his usual style of fervid eloquence. Then came the crowning oration of the night by the Hon. Edward Cantwell; this distinguished gentleman was listened to with unwearied attention, as he dwelt at length upon Senator Sumner's Civil Rights Bill, arguing with persuasive force the intrinsic excellence of the features of that bill, and clothing his language in masterly advocacy of this super-eminent champion of Civil Rights; proudly asserting Mr. Sumner's claims not only to the highest regard, but of eternal gratitude of the colored race and counselling to esteem him as their best reliance. The concluding address was delivered by Col. Geo. M. Arnold, who entered the Hall at the conclusion of the previous speech, having just arrived from Greensboro. Mr. Arnold was eminently successful in his discourse on Civil Rights, striking a grand distinction between the True Republican and the "man on the fence" and after able argumentation closed by warning the colored voters against deceitful office-holders who had been placed in power by Republican support.

The following resolutions were then introduced by Messrs. R. H. Leak and J. M. Wise, and unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The principles of the Republican party (as the same are announced and declared in the second and third resolutions of the platform adopted at Philadelphia in 1872) are ignored by men in official position who enjoy the patronage of the party.

Be it resolved, That our delegates to the township, city, county, State and national conventions, be requested to insist in future that the emoluments of office shall be placed in the hands of men whose course shall give the assurance of their unfaltering devotion to the doctrines of equal rights before the law, equal rights behind the law, and equal rights as a principle, without any law whatever.

Resolved, That the President of this Club, Hon. Geo. L. Mabson, is hereby requested to invite our tried and faithful friends, Hon. Thomas Settle and Hon. Wm. A. Smith, to address our citizens, under the auspices of the Cape Fear Civil Rights Club, and to desire them to notify him when they will be able to respond to our call.

The election of delegates to the State Civil Rights Convention resulted in the choice of Hon. Geo. L. Mabson, Geo. W. Price, Jr., Henry Brewington, W. H. Moore, R. H. Leak, D. Nixon, John Bell, and George W. Hill.

With a flow of earnest enthusiasm, and expressions of firm determination, the Club then adjourned.

GEO. L. MABSON, President.
N. G. SAMPSON, Secretary.

By request we publish the following notice: The Young Ladies Social Circle will meet this (Tuesday) evening at 9 p. m., at the residence of Miss E. J. Sampson.
